

Video Relay Service is the only telecommunications system that allows both parties to use their native language--VERY important for equal access! Please make sure that high-quality VRS service is available at all hours, throughout the United States, by providing sufficient resources for this important program.